THE CONCORD ORDERED HOME.

To Return From Cavite by Way of the Behring Sea.

Orders were sent yesterday to Rear Admiral Kempff at Cavite to send the gunboat Concord home by the way of Behring Sea. The orders direct her to spend the summer in those waters, going as far north as Point Barrow to prevent illegal liquor selling and safeguard American interests generally. She will visit Prince William Sound, Norton Sound, and Kotzebue Sound, where Geological Survey parties will be engaged in work. At the end of the open season she will proceed to San Francisco and thence to Mare Island for a thorough overhauling. The Concord is the last vessel of Admiral Dewey's original squadron in the Philippines. The supply ship Culgoa, purchased in the East by Admiral Dewey, has been ordered to the United States for repairs. She will arrive on the Atlantic Coast in the autumn.

A COURT-MARTIAL ORDERED.

Lieut. Richard H. Townley Must Stand Trial at Cavite.

The Acting Secretary of the Navy yesterday sent orders to Rear Admiral Kempff, at Cavite, to convene there a court-martial for the trial of Lieut. R. H. Townley, U. S. N. Lieutenant Townley will be tried on charges growing out of his admissions on the witness stand in the army commissary trials at Manila that he had acted as an intermediary, and had obtained on two occasions sums of money from a firm of contractors. The action of the Acting Secretary was based on a report received by telegraph yesterday from Admiral Kempff. On the day the press report appeared in the American newspapers, the Navy Department telegraphed Admiral Kempff to make a full investigation. The admiral's report that Lieutenant Townley's testimony was substantially as given above, and that he had declined the offer from the Manila Naval School, of which he was in charge, and would send him to the gunboat Manila, under suspension, to await further action. Lieutenant Townley was placed on the retired list of the navy in June, 1897. He was assigned, however, to active duty during the war with Spain. Congress by special act, approved March 3, 1899, authorized the President to appoint him to the grade and rank of Lieutenant Junior Grade, at the foot of the active list, provided he should establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy by examination pursuant to law, his physical, mental, moral, and professional fitness to perform the duties of that grade. An examination for this purpose has heretofore been directed by the Department to be held on the Asiatic station.

Governor Allen on Board.

The Porto Rican station ship Mayflower, formerly Ogden Golet's yacht of the same name, left Hampton Roads yesterday for San Juan with Governor Allen, of Porto Rico, on board.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Lieber and Miss Norris Married Yesterday at St. Paul's.

Dinner Guests Entertained by the Argentine Minister—Mrs. Simpkins' Tea at the Country Club—Prominent Guests at the Annapolis Game.

The marriage of Miss Geneva Norris to Mr. William Alexander Lieber, was solemnized at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rev. Alfred Harward, D. D., rector of the church, officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by a large gathering of friends. Miss Lieber, the bridegroom's sister, was the maid of honor, and the group of pretty bridesmaids consisted of Miss Murphy, of San Francisco; Miss Hilda Shapley, Miss Fannie Baird, and Miss Elizabeth Steell, of Philadelphia, and Miss Marie Lovell and Miss Louise Lieber, of this city.

Mr. James S. McCord, of Philadelphia, acted as best man, and the ushers, who led the bride train up the aisle, were Mr. John Kerton Elsenhary, Dr. Richard Woods, and Mr. Milton Hager of Philadelphia. Dr. Clayton, Mr. John Elbert, and Mr. Morven Thompson.

The bride, wearing a very beautiful robe of white duchess satin and real lace, an orange blossom crown and veil caught with a diamond crescent, and carrying a diamond ring, entered the church with her uncle, Mr. Richard Norris, of Philadelphia, by whom she was given in marriage. The maid of honor wore a pink mousseline de sole and a pink picture hat, trimmed with pink roses, and the bridesmaids wore white mousseline over white silk and pretty hats of white lace. All carried bouquets of pink roses. The bride wore black lace over white satin, and Mrs. Lieber a handsome gown of black crepe. Both the church and the bride's residence in N Street, where a wedding breakfast was served, were decorated with white blossoms and foliage plants.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Thaddeus Norris, who has spent the last few years of her life in this city, and the groom, who is a son of Gen. and Mrs. G. N. Lieber, of Eighteenth Street, was recently a lieutenant in the United States Army. He resigned from the service, it is said, in reference to the wife of the late, who did not care to go to the Philippines.

Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lieber will spend time with the parents of the former. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gibbs, whose marriage occurred in Philadelphia the other day. Mrs. Gibbs is a cousin of yesterday's bride.

The Argentine Minister entertained at dinner last night. His guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Keops, of Chicago, who are now visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boardman; Frau von Reuber-Faschewitz, Miss Dora Leach, Miss Josephine Boardman, Mr. Lowther, and Mr. Crankenthorpe, of the British Embassy and Count Tarnowski, of the Austrian embassy, who has recently returned from abroad.

Mrs. Nathaniel Simpkins, of Connecticut Avenue, entertained seventy-five friends informally yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at a tea at the Country Club. The hostess welcomed her guests in a dainty gown of pink silk. She will close her Washington home early in June and go to Beverly Farms, Massachusetts.

Miss Madeline Gary, daughter of ex-Poetmaster Gary, was the bride yesterday at the Baltimore horse show on Friday. Miss Eleanor Terry, who is the guest of the Misses Miller during the show, was much admired yesterday for her picturesque toilette of white crepe de chine worn with a large white hat with ostrich plumes.

The marriage of Miss Edith Steacy to Reuben Edwin Bakenhus, civil engineer, United States Army, will take place next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at All Souls' Church.

Count Colachevich will remain in America until the end of June. This week he will go on an extended tour of the West. He is especially desirous of visiting Chicago.

Count Coloredo-Mannfeld, who has just completed his short visit to Washington, is the younger brother and heir of Prince Coloredo-Mannfeld, chief of the great Austrian imperial family of that name. The count, who, like his elder brother the prince, is unmarried, holds the rank of lieutenant in the Austrian navy, and of chamberlain to Emperor Francis Joseph. He will proceed on board his yacht to Newport after spending a few days in New York. He is about thirty years old.

Mrs. and Miss Austin have gone to their summer place on Long Island to be near Mr. Frank R. Austin, Jr., who was married about a month ago and who is now engaged in business in New York.

Mrs. J. Addison Porter, who has been out of the city for the last few weeks, will return next Tuesday.

Mrs. Rebecca Hornsby will leave in the early part of June for a visit to her brother in York County, Pa., and later will go to the mountains in Pennsylvania and to the Pan-American Exposition.

Mrs. Elkins, Mrs. Leiter, Miss Nancy Leiter, and Mr. Hobson were among the Washingtonians who attended the ball game between the West Point and Annapolis teams at the latter place yesterday.

Miss Bancroft, of Boston, daughter of the late George Bancroft, will arrive here today to visit Miss Hay.

The wedding gown to be worn by Miss Vivian Sartoris when she marries Mr. Archibald Balfour in London in August is described in detail as seen at the model's in Baltimore, where the troupe was made. The robe is of heavy ivory satin, with corsage garniture of lace. The lace is point, of exquisite texture and pattern. It gains the hand the lace appears broad at the shoulders, where it falls over the sleeves, and very narrow at the waist. From the shoulder to the wrist, the sleeves reach clear down to the hand, where they are fastened by the finger tips. Of course, the gown is to be worn without gloves.

The company, which sailed yesterday, carried a dozen trunks filled with wedding finery for the pretty granddaughter of Gen. U. S. Grant.

The principals and faculty of Chesham School gave an evening reception Wednesday, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The Minister from Brazil and Mme. Assis-Brazil will spend the summer at Asbury, N. J.

Speaker and Mrs. Henderson will sail May 23 to join their daughter, who is in England, and to spend the summer in Continental travel.

The Columbia Heights Art Club met at the home of Mrs. Fannie B. Ward, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, Thursday last. Mrs. C. W. Schneider read a story on "The Fountain of Youth," and also recited "A Dream of Italy." Mrs. Lincoln read some original poems and Miss Lillian

The Strongest Bargains Since the Inception of Our Building Sale.

This Building Sale has been an interesting event. It will prove to be unusually so tomorrow, because all the offerings represent the season's very newest and best goods. The prices attached, as you will readily see, are very small. Bargain spots will be as thick as sunshine on a clear day. Read this notable list of bargain specials carefully. There's a money-saving opportunity in every item.

Ladies' and Misses' Suits at and Below Cost During Our Building Sale.

We've had a remarkably busy season in suits, but, like many merchants, we've had our calculations upset by the rainy spell of last month—hence more suits on hand than this time of the season warrants. We must reduce our stock—so we've decided to make deep price-cuts on every Ladies' and Misses' Suit in our stock—in many instances garments will be offered below actual cost; therefore we must make a charge for any alterations—the charges will be very small, as the cost of only actual labor will be charged. Take the elevator to second floor bright and early tomorrow morning. A first choice is worth having.

Every Suit this season's style, made of grey, Oxford, and blue, all wool, homespun, Jacket suit, in-lined, velvet collar, double-breasted button effect, with cuffs, grey, also black; all sizes, worth $12.50.
